

Life Processes of the Human Body

1. Complete the sentences:
 - 1.1 Tissues consist of a group of cells
 - 1.2 A group of tissues form an organ
 - 1.3 The lungs are part of respiratory system and part of the excretory system.
 2. Name the system to which each of the following system belong:
 - 2.1 Stomach: digestive system
 - 2.2 Blood: circulatory system
 - 2.3 Bones: skeletal system
 - 2.4 Kidneys: excretory system
 - 2.5 Eyes: nervous system
 - 2.6 Uterus: female reproductive system
 3. Explain the function of each of the following systems.
 - 3.1 Excretory system: get rid of waste products from the body.
 - 3.2 Digestive system: break down food into simpler forms.
 - 3.3 Respiratory system: gaseous exchange.
 - 3.4 Reproductive system: different species are increased in numbers
 - 3.5 Nervous system: controls all other systems.
 4. Explain the meaning of each of the following words:
 - 4.1 Function: the purpose that something has or the job that something does.
 - 4.2 System: a group of things or parts that work together for a particular purpose.
 - 4.3 Life process: a process that sustains life or makes life to be possible.
(nutrition, reproduction, excretion, respiration, growth, irritability, movement).
-